The Early Colonial Delaware Valley
An Archaeological Symposium

May 9, 2009
New Castle Court House Museum
New Castle, DE

The second annual symposium on the early colonial archaeology of the Delaware Valley Region will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the New Castle Court House Museum in New Castle, Delaware.

We are looking for informal presentations on the practical aspects of the archaeology of this period. Our goal is to build a regional level dialog that can identify the uniqueness of the early colonial cultures of this region. If you are interested in participating, please send an abstract which will be posted on this website. There are no fees, and there is ample free parking at the symposium location. For additional information, please contact Craig Lukezic at craig.lukezic@state.de.us.
